Program Summary

The Administrative Office of the Courts will engage 312 AmeriCorps members to assist individuals attending court without an attorney who are trying to resolve crucial legal matters affecting their family, housing, personal safety, and financial stability by educating litigants on their legal options, potential outcomes, providing referrals, and assisting litigants to accurately complete legal forms in court-based self-help centers in the Bay Area, Los Angeles, and San Diego. This program will focus on the CNCS focus area of Economic Opportunity.
